*I sing of a night in Bethlehem. A night as bright as dawn.
I sing of that night in Bethlehem. The night the Word was born.
The skies are glowing brightly, The earth in white is dressed.
See Jesus in His Cradle. Drink deep at His mother's breast.*

*And there on a lowly hillside. The shepherds bow down in fear.
When the heavens open brightly. And God's message rings out so clear.
Glory now to the Father. In all the heavens high.
And peace to His friends on earth below. Is all the angels cry.*
